Marker

Position the QR code so that the corner indicated by the purple triangle matches the coordinate specified in Rhino. The corner of the sheet can be cut or folded to push the code against walls or other edges.

If positioning your model with only a single marker, the model orientation will match the orientation of this sheet with the x-axis along the long edge and the y-axis along the short edge.

UR10Marker